Rotary is Watching!

Their administrative assistants may have said they were in “an important meeting,” and who knows...maybe there really were important issues to be discussed that afternoon.

Rumor has it that these two Rotarians had their “meeting” after Rotary Club on a recent Friday afternoon.

Perhaps Dennis wanted to talk with Max about Max’s fabulous track record of soliciting new members for the club.

“It’s all in hat you wear when you ask,” Max allegedly said while donning an elegant staw version.

There’s a lesson in this little article for all of us...no matter where you are or what you’re doing, someone from Rotary may be watching. Don’t be surprised if you find yourself smiling from the pages of the next Pep!

“Classification Speech”

Contributed by Todd Lybarger

Russ Blowers is a minister and is active in the Indianapolis Rotary Club. Each week at the club meetings a different member gives a brief statement about his job. When it was his turn, Russ said...

“I’m with a global enterprise. We have branches in every country in the world. We have our representatives in nearly every parliament and boardroom on earth. We’re into motivation and behavior alteration.

“We run hospitals, feeding stations, crisis pregnancy centers, universities, publishing houses and nursing homes. We care for our clients from birth to death.

“We are into life insurance and fire insurance. We perform spiritual heart transplants. Our original organizer owns all the real estate on earth plus an assortment of galaxies and constellations. He knows everything and lives everywhere. Our product is free for the asking. (There’s not enough money to buy it.)

“Our CEO was born in a hick town, worked as a carpenter, didn’t own a home, was misunderstood by his family, hated by enemies, walked on water, was condemned to death without a trial, and arose from the dead - I talk with him everyday.”

The church is the most amazing organization in the world!
